

Appendix C1: German-American Recruiting Poster #1

No. 830.

OUR GERMAN VOLUNTEERS.

Respectfully dedicated to them by JOHN C. CROSS.
AIR.—New York Volunteer.

There is a general in the west whose deeds have come to fame
He is a gallant soldier and in movements he is game;
Then let us raise our voices high and give three hearty cheers
For Sigel hero of the West and his German volunteers.
For Sigel hero of the West, &c.

Now at the battle of Bull-Run we fought well every one can say,
But panic struck our army and we had to move away,
And in that great confusion of our rear we had great fears,
But it was protected by Blenker and his German Volunteers.
But it was protected by Blenker, &c.

Now there's the gallant Fifth Regiment who before their duty done,
They have again offered their services to go to Washington;
And were it not for Patterson who did Scott's plan betray,
They would join McDowell at Bull-Run and took an active part that day.
They would join McDowell, &c.

Then there's the gallant Max Weber who took an active part
When our ships of war bombarded Forts Hatteras and Clark,
And should the South make an attack while he and his men
are there,
They'll get a mighty good whipping of which they are not aware.
They'll get a mighty good whipping &c

Now as I close my little song I'll say a word or two,
Should you be called upon to fight stand by your colors true
Then raise your voices with one accord and give three hearty cheers,
For McClellan, Scott and Sigel and their Union Volunteers,
For McClellan, Scott and Sigel, &c.

J. WRIGLEY, Publisher, of Songs, Ballads, and Toy Books, Conversations, Ags, and Small Playing Cards, Alphabet Wood Blocks, Valentines, Motto Verses, and Out
Motto Paper &c. No. 24 Chatham Street, (OPPOSITE CITY HALL PARK) NEW YORK

Source: America Singing Collection, Nineteenth-Century Song Sheets, Library of Congress

Appendix C2: German-American Recruiting Poster #2

Bürger
Euer Land = Gefahr!
In den Waffen! In den Waffen!
121ste Regiment
 Pennsylvanien Volunteers.

Körperlich fähige Männer verlangt in Col. Chapman Biddle's Regiment.
 Ein Monat's Sold im Voraus, $2 an jeden Rekruten, so-bald derselbe eingemustert ist und

160 Dollars Bounty!

Nämlich: $25 United States Bounty in Baar, sobald die
 Compagnie in den Dienst eingemustert ist.
 $ 25 City Bounty in Baar zu derselben Zeit.
 $ 25 " wenn das Regiment eingemustert.
 $ 10 Extra Bounty, die Hälfte davon wenn die Compagnie und die andere Hälfte wenn das Regiment eingemustert.
$75 United States Bounty zu Ende des Krieges.

Ein Rekrute vorher selbst eingemustert. Zahlung der Bountys vom Tage der Musterung an. Zahlung nach Krieg geendet.

Friedrich König,
 Des Regiment von D. G. Heflingens, Capt., Compagnie D.

Recrute-Office, No. 231 Callowhill Straße, unterh. 3ten.

Das 121ste Regiment, Col. Chapman Biddle, ist von Ohio, durch unsere Waffen und hat in England, Irland, in der Schweiz und N. A. ein Lager gemacht. Es ist bester Platz, um sich den für die Bundesarmee zu halten. Die Soldaten, welche in das Regiment eintreten, erhalten selbst Bountys, Compagnie und Militärs.

Address: King's School-Street, New York, New York.

Source: Civil War Posters, New York Historical Society